France supports GIFT-MENA

The French Ministry of Economy, Industry and Employment has pledged its full support to the development of the GIFT-MENA network through a 3-year grant amounting €450,000 to the Basil Fuleihan Institute of Finance, permanent Secretariat of the network.

The grant is operated by ADETEF, the French Agency for International Cooperation of the French ministries of Economy and Finance.

The agreement focuses on a comprehensive action plan that includes: (1) Support to the development of the capacities of the GIFT-MENA Secretariat; (2) Development of a web platform; (3) Inter-institutional exchange; (4) Development of the institutional capacities of member institutions and the (5) Promotion of economic and financial knowledge.
